

NEWS RELEASE

June 2017

REMUS PALIMARU APPOINTED AS HOTEL MANAGER FOR ROSEWOOD LONDON

Rosewood London is delighted to announce the appointment of Remus Palimaru as hotel manager effective from 24 July 2017. In his new role, Remus will report directly to Managing Director, Michael Bonsor, overseeing all hotel operations from its 262 rooms and 44 suites, to Scarfe's Bar, The Mirror Room, Holborn Dining Room and Sense Spa.

Remus joins Rosewood London from his most recent position as hotel manager for the award-winning Dorado Beach, a Ritz-Carlton Reserve in Puerto Rico, where he has worked for the last three years. Prior to this, Remus held senior roles at various Ritz-Carlton properties around the world such as Atlanta, Grand Cayman, Toronto and Osaka developing his professional growth within the company.

Michael Bonsor, Managing Director at Rosewood London, comments: "I am delighted to welcome Remus to the team as he will bring tremendous hospitality experience, drive and passion to the hotel. He will be a great asset to Rosewood London."

Commenting on his appointment, Remus said: "Finding Rosewood London was finding home for me. After fifteen industry years, living in five countries, serving six hotels and resorts and supporting numerous openings, I am very pleased to be back in Europe and look forward to working with the team to continue Rosewood London's uncompromising commitment to providing the very best in hospitality for its guests."

-more-

Remus Palimaru Appointed as Hotel Manager for Rosewood London

Page 2

About Rosewood London

Rosewood London, centrally located in the heart of London on High Holborn and housed in the original headquarters of the Pearl Assurance Company, showcases a sensitive renovation of the 1914 Edwardian, Grade II-listed building. Combining English heritage with contemporary sophistication, the retained Belle Époque architectural features include the original carriageway entrance to the grand courtyard and a spectacular Pavonazzo marble staircase which rises over seven storeys. The hotel has the feel of a stylish London residence and houses 262 guestrooms and 44 suites including the Grand Manor House Wing, an exclusive six-bedroom suite with its very own postcode. Tony Chi and Associates created the interiors of the public areas including 12 event spaces and the Mirror Room, serving elegant, innovative cuisine and afternoon tea. The Martin Brudnizki-designed Holborn Dining Room, with outdoor terrace, offers British classics with a twist whilst Scarfes Bar serves creative cocktails alongside live jazz and cabaret.

For more information: rosewoodhotels.com/London

Connect with us: facebook.com/RosewoodLondon, Twitter @RosewoodLondon, Instagram @RosewoodLondon

###

Media Contact:

Marie Le Vasseur, Director of Communications

Telephone: +44 20 3747 8702

Email: marie.levasseur@rosewoodhotels.com

